

We hope you enjoy this Spring edition of the NL. It is jam-packed with news of the Society's events and activities over the last six months. Now that summer is here, we have some excellent occasions lined up. We do hope you will join us - see page 12 for details. NJS

Anglesey Antiquarian Society Outing to Llanellian 14th September 2024

Some two dozen members assembled at the church in Llanellian on a bright but breezy Saturday afternoon for the excursion organised by our President, Rufus Gwyn-White. Inside the church, he welcomed the members and introduced Lesley Ryder, the church warden, who gave a brief explanation of the repair work being undertaken to the roof of the church and tower. There is, currently in the under way, is to the roof of the garage joining the church to the walled way; there is to the roof of the garage which are still to be raised, is to the Eilian chapel. There is to the roof of the garage which are still to be raised, is to the Eilian chapel.
